R&B - Kool and the Gang

-the group with a sound that has influenced the music of three generations, has sold more than 70 million albums worldwide. They have won two Grammys, seven American Music Awards, 25 Top Ten R&B hits, nine top ten pop hits and 31 Gold and Platinum albums. Kool and The gang has performed longer than any other R&B group in history.

NOSTALGIA -Sha Na Na- may not have invented Rock Nostalgia, but the group has successfully celebrated the music and the memories for the past three decades. They were in the original Woodstock Festival lineup, starred in the film "Grease", hosted the "Sha Na Na" TV Series for four years. Great band and will do a dance set or two.

ROCK/POP-Through the years Huey Lewis & The News has earned the reputation of being a quintessential America Rock & Roll band. Surely, "The Heart of Rock & Roll," "If This Is It," "I Want A New Drug," and their many other hits embody the celebratory spirit of the time when rock & roll was new and exciting. As well as doing lead vocals and playing harmonica with the band, Huey also writes or co-writes many of their songs.

COMEDIAN - Howie Mandel's career has encompassed virtually every area of entertainment, including television, film and the stage. Howie is well known for his role of Dr. Wayne Fiscus on the award-winning NBC drama, St. Elsewhere. His Emmy Award-nominated animated children series, "Bobby's World," ran eight seasons and now appears in syndication in 65 countries. Howie has done countless comedy specials both on cable and network television.

He has also hosted his own syndicated talk show "The Howie Mandel Show."
