

Celebrity Golfers

Joe Pesci - Joe Pesci is the fiery actor who won an Oscar for his supporting role as Tommy DeVito in Goodfellas (1990). During the 1990s he appeared in some of the hottest movies of the era, including Home Alone (1990) and its sequel, three Lethal Weapon movies (1989-98, with Mel Gibson), and My Cousin Vinny. Joe has made quite a name for himself in celebrity golf tournaments. Joe is a legitimate ten handicap.

Huey Lewis and the News. Huey writes or co-writes many of their songs. Some of his hits are Hip to be Square, I Want a New Drug, The Heart of Rock and Roll and many more. Outside the band, his interests include golf, baseball, fishing (salmon and trout) and racing cars.

Leslie Nielsen: You know him and love him as bumbling Lieutenant Frank Drebin, the silver-haired schlemiel of TV's Police Squad! and the string of Naked Gun movies. But if that's all you know of Leslie Nielsen, he has had a remarkably diverse career that spans six decades. He's also know for his golf videos, Bad Golf Made Easier and Leslie Nielsen's Stupid Little Golf Video.

Jamie Farr - Was one of two cast members of the original M*A*S*H television cast to have actually served in the armed forces in Korea. Jamie has an LPGA tournament named in his honor, the Jamie Farr Kroger Classic

Ed Begley, Jr. - Ed is best known for his portrayal of Dr. Victor Ehrlich on the series St. Elsewhere, for which he received an Emmy nomination. His motion pictures include The Accidental Tourist, Pagemaster, Joey and Batman Forever. Ed is well versed in many environmental issues, and his endorsements are sought after by major environmental groups. Ed is an avid golfer and a regular with Charitable Tournaments.

Cheryl Ladd - Cheryl juggles a busy schedule that includes television, films, a series of childrens's books, athletics, and philanthropy. She is an avid golfer and is recognized as a leading celebrity golfer. She enthusiastically serves as an ambassador for the Buick Golf Program. Ladd participates in four major Buick PGA Tournaments, and she also plays in various pro am tourneys to help raise money for charity - not to mention the First Annual Cheryl Ladd Pro AM.

John Elway - In 2004, in his first year of eligibility, John Elway was elected on the first ballot to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He and his Elway Foundation host a charity golf tournament every year called the John Elway Golf Classic.
